

The Historical Museum Proudly Presents

Patty Hall bringing Raggedy Ann and Andy to Wichita

Tuesday, October 25, 5:30-8:00 pm

LEARN WITH RAGGEDY ANN & ANDY Workshop For Educators

---

Early childhood educators and librarians are invited to learn how these timeless storybook characters can be incorporated into contemporary values education, classroom curricula, and programming. Each participant will receive a Teachers' Guide and have an opportunity to purchase Patty's books for signing. FREE. Reservations required: Call 265-9314.

Wednesday, October 26, 10:00-11:30 am

"THE REAL-FOR-SURE STORY OF RAGGEDY ANN & ANDY" Senior Wednesday

Come hear Raggedy historian Patty Hall share some RAGGEDY HISTORY and sing her original Raggedy JUMPIN' UP!™ SONGS. Following the program, you will have a chance to visit with Patty and buy autographed copies of her RAGGEDY ANN & ANDY BOOKS. Members FREE; Non-members $2.00; for more info: Call 265-9314.

Friday, October 28, 10:00-10:45 am

RAGGEDYS HURRAH! Family Program

---

The young and the young at heart will love hearing the story of how the floppy duo came to be America's favorite rag dolls. Patty will have everyone singing her JUMPIN' UP!™ MUSIC as she tells how JOHNNY GRUELLE created the books and toys that still charm children and adults alike. Members FREE; Non-member ADULTS AND CHILDREN $2.00. Reservations required: Call 265-9314.

Patty will also present children's programs at two branch libraries on Thursday, October 27, and a workshop for aspiring authors at Watermark Books on Friday, October 28. For full details, please visit www.wichitahistory.org and click on Upcoming Events.

San Diego performance artist Patty Hall celebrates America's favorite rag dolls in this series of engaging programs at the Wichita-Sedgwick County Historical Museum.